

5 Fundraising Tips

Is it okay to ask for support during the Coronavirus pandemic? The short answer is YES! Now more than ever, our lung cancer community needs educational resources and 1-on-1 support as they navigate this health crisis that targets our lungs.

- RECOGNIZE there are lots of worthy causes in need
- BE GENUINE
- SHARE why the lung cancer cause is important to You
- ASK for small amounts
- OFFER other ways your network can support you besides donating dollars:
  - Sharing your efforts with 5 of their friends
  - Downloading the event flyer & spreading the word about your event
  - 'Liking' your efforts on social media

Together, we will raise much-needed awareness and fund critical programs for all those affected by lung cancer.
